

Which Ethics Committees to Apply to		Researcher
		St George's University London (Students)	St George's University London (Staff)	St George's Hospital Trust (Staff)	Other Organisation (including Kingston University)
Participant or Data	St George's University London (Students)	SGREC	SGREC	SGREC	Other Organisation's Process + SGREC
	St George's University London (Staff)	SGREC	SGREC	SGREC	Other Organisation's Process + SGREC
	St George's University London (Animals ¹)	AWERB	AWERB	AWERB	Other Organisation's Process + AWERB
	St George's Hospital Trust / Other NHS Site (Staff) Recruited through NHS	SGREC + HRA	SGREC + HRA	SGREC + HRA	Other Organisation's Process + SGREC + HRA
	Participants Not recruited through NHS	SGREC	SGREC	SGREC	-
	St George's Hospital Trust / Other NHS Site (Patients)	HRA + NHS REC	HRA + NHS REC	HRA + NHS REC	Other Organisation's Process + HRA + NHS REC
	Other Organisation (including Kingston University)	SGREC + Other Organisation's Process ²	SGREC + Other Organisation's Process ²	SGREC + HRA + Other Organisation's Process	-
	Clinical Audits and Service Evaluations	SGREC ³	SGREC ³	Register with clinical audit team in relevant Trust. For St George's this is Adam Lewarne Adam.Lewarne@stgeorges.nhs.uk	-

¹ Any research requiring animals for whatever purpose, requires submission to AWERB (Animal Welfare Ethical Review Body), please contact brfinfo@sgul.ac.uk for help.

² SGREC not required if being reviewed by nationally recognised research ethics committee (usually NHS REC, but would include Ministry Of Defence REC).

³ Ethical approval is not required but a SAFE and protocol should be submitted to the SGREC for review and registration.